Evans
'E AND ALLIED HOSPITALS
RCULOSIS DIVISION O. P. D.
LLEVUE HOSPITAL
'AST 26TH STREET
NEW YORK

BROOKLYN, N.Y.
JAN 30
2 AM
1918
STA. E.

U.S. POSTAGE
2 CENTS 2

J. M. Freedman,
c/o Post Quartermaster's Office,
U.S. Marine Corps Reserve,
Brooklyn Navy Yard
Brooklyn, N.Y.

Jan 29-18.

"Ello, my 'oney" —

Why didn't I tell you that I had written you a letter? — well — for no other reason than that I thought I would shock you much more unexpectedly. Thats one reason, and the other, which is far more important, is because I "jes" love you.

When I read about your finding out what the to put up with. Had to stand all the way, shoved and pushed about, until I almost decided to turn back. And I went Fulton St. way, too!

I shall see you to-night so shan't write anymore. Thought, since I won't see you to-morrow, you might like to receive a letter letters in movies' letter meant. I couldn't help laughing right out.

As for the weather — in all this storm yesterday I came down on time and back no trouble at all. But this morning — good heavens, it took me over an hour and a half, came in late as usual besides all the trouble and inconveniences I had your friend Hart

had better be careful, what he says now to his lady friend — we won't stand for any nonsense — not since we are soon going to vote.

It is now 3 and in only 3 more hours I shall see you.

Lovingly
Your Wifie Frank